SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL. LONOKE, August 27.-Henry Burnett LONOKE, August 27.—Henry Burnett is was publicly executed here to-day in the presence of acout 3000 people. He made to confession on the scaffold. The same scaffold on which Joe Bogard was hung last year was used. He said he was not prepared to die. He asked his minister to warn all young men to take warning and shun the ways of all evil. The black cap and noose were adjusted at 2:30 o clock. Eighteen minutes were consumed before the final drop, during which he made several attempts to free himself. He became so obstreperous that the sheriff and aids had to the his feet back on his thighs and hold him on the trap until it could be sprung. The drop fell at 2:56 o'clock. His neck was broken. He was pronounced dead at 2:50 o'clock, and cut down four minutes later.
